In his motion in limine, Defendant Damien Burnett moved to require the government to provide him supplemental Giglio information and materials [Doc. No. 506]. At the April 22, 2019 pre-trial hearing, Mr. Burnett's counsel specifically requested review of the criminal history portions of the Presentence Investigation Reports ("PSR") of Crystal Starstead, Carlos Coleman, and Jovan Gentle, as well as any information contained in Ms. Starstead's PSR related to her memory impairment.

As to Mr. Gentle, the criminal history section of his PSR beginning with Mr. Gentle's adult convictions may be disclosed to counsel for Mr. Burnett in the event that Mr. Gentle testifies. It is the Court's understanding that this is a preliminary report and the final report is pending.

As to Mr. Coleman, the criminal history section of his PSR beginning with Mr. Coleman's adult convictions may be disclosed to counsel for Mr. Burnett in the event that Mr. Coleman testifies.

As to Ms. Starstead, the criminal history section of her PSR beginning with Ms. Starstead's adult convictions may be disclosed to counsel for Mr. Burnett in the event that Ms. Starstead testifies. In addition, paragraph 92 of the PSR, which relates to her memory impairment, may be disclosed to counsel for Mr. Burnett in the event that Ms. Starstead testifies.
